Organisation profile	Founded officially in 1946, Ferrero was built upon an already thriving family confectionery business. Family-owned to this day, the company has built itself into an international group with commercial interests in the Americas, Australasia, Asia and Africa, as well as in Western and Eastern Europe. The Group, which is headquartered in Luxembourg, currently owns 31 trade companies. It has three R&amp;D centres and fifteen production plants, which turn out approximately 700,000 tons of products every year. Thanks to the dedicated commitment of 16,000 employees, brands like Nutella, Ferrero Rocher, Mon Chéri, Tic Tac, Kinder Bueno, Kinder Sorpresa and Raffaello have become worldwide successes. For Ferrero, respecting nature is so important that the Group considers the objectives of its environmental policy on a par with its production goals. In order to do this, it has created the Environmental Management System that has been adopted by all production and planning sectors, with particular reference to the development of new products and the choice of new technologies. This is a commitment that has led to its hard-earned ISO 14001 certification.
