Operational Profile

1.1 What are the main activities of your organization ?

The Orang Utan Republik Foundation was first founded in October 2004 as the Orang Utan Republik Education Initiative (OUREI). OUREI began its mission as a project under Social and Environmental Entrepreneurs (SEE) to save wild orangutans from extinction through education and outreach programs. In 2007, the Orang Utan Republik Foundation (OURF) was incorporated to continue its mission as a tax-exempt organization. In addition to funding its Education Initiative, OURF also supports a Conservation Initiative through its field operations in Sumatra.

We have a number of education programs, including Orang Utan Caring Week, Orang Utan Caring Scholarships, community outreach, and school partnership programs.
