Actions for Next Reporting Period

7.1 Outline actions that you will take in the coming year to advance your plans for certification

Not applicable as PPB Oil Palms is fully certified.

7.2 Outline actions that you will take to promote CSPO along the supply chain

We are currently working closely with Wildasia, an NGO operating in Malaysia, to certify smallholders and smallgrowers.

PPB Oil Palms parent company, Wilmar, has issued a stringent new policy against deforestation, developments on peat and human rights exploitation. This policy applies to all of Wilmar's operations as well as its associates, contractors and suppliers.

Reasons for Non-Disclosure of Information

8.1 If you have not disclosed any of the above information, please indicate the reasons why

Other

- Others:

We are unable to provide the planted hectarage for the independent smallholders under 2.5.2 as not all of them deliver their crop exclusively to our mills.

We are unable to disclose the GHG information under 6.2 as we are currently using the RSPO Palm GHG calculation tool on a trial basis.

Challenges

1 What significant economic, social or environmental obstacles have you encountered in the production, procurement, use and/or promotion of CSPO and what efforts did you make to mitigate or resolve them?

1) Certification is a costly affair, it involves a lot of resources and time. For example, in the management of HCVs, much cost and effort are required to maintain them within our concessions. We have accepted this as part of the cost of doing business today and it is also for the greater good. We work closely with the relevant government departments and institutions to find ways to better manage and protect these areas.

2) Being transparent does carry a risk. We occasionally encounter land claims from communities who have their own interpretation of rights to land. We are currently working with a relevant NGO and actively engaging with the land claimant to find a resolution.

2 How would you qualify RSPO standards as compared to other parallel standards?

Cost Effective:

No

Robust:

Yes

Simpler to Comply to:

similar

3 How has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

This is done through our parent company Wilmar International Ltd.
