Challenges

1 What significant economic, social or environmental obstacles have you encountered in the production, procurement, use and/or promotion of CSPO and what efforts did you make to mitigate or resolve them?

There are several upstream challenges in our extended palm oil supply chain in terms of human rights and deforestation. We meet these challenges by increasing our visibility and promoting transparency by publishing our full mill list publically .

2 In addition to the actions already reported in this ACOP how has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets in other ways? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

We continue to communicate how our standard for sustainable palm oil is through full alignment of RSPO standards and certifications.
