We will continue to support the vision of the RSPO to transform markets by 1) sending the demand signal to our suppliers that sustainable palm oil is important to Walmart, 2) requiring that new products include sustainable palm oil, and 3) hosting workshops/webinars with our suppliers and provide supporting information to educate them about the issues in the palm oil industry, as well as our expectations for CSPO usage.

7.2 What best practice guidelines or information has your organisation provided in the past year, to facilitate the uptake of RSPO certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products? What languages are these guidelines available in?

Comment:
We provide practical guidance for setting deforestation targets through Project Gigaton and our Walmart Sustainability HUB.

Through Project Gigaton, each year we ask our suppliers to submit data points to Walmart based on the Project Gigaton pillars they have joined (Energy, Waste, Agriculture, etc.). For Deforestation, suppliers are asked to submit the impact of palm oil sourcing improvements they have achieved in a given reporting year. There are several options for submitting Deforestation data - as it relates to palm oil sourcing - to Project Gigaton reporting:

Option 1: If a company already reports to the CDP Climate Change Questionnaire each year, this information can be leveraged to report emissions reductions to Project Gigaton. To report to Project Gigaton using CDP disclosure, suppliers must grant permission for Walmart to use their CDP disclosure during the sign up or reporting process and the following CC3.3b fields must be completed in your CDP disclosure:
  - Activity type
  - Description of activity
  - Estimated annual metric tons CO2e savings
  - Scope

We ask our suppliers to please use the 2017 CDP Climate Change Reporting Guidance to properly respond to question CC3.3b.

Option 2 - Sustainably sourced palm oil: For companies that do not report their emissions reductions to the CDP Climate Change Questionnaire each year, or who have sustainably sourced palm oil but are unable to calculate the greenhouse gas impacts, they can still report to Project Gigaton by submitting the following data points and Walmart will calculate the emissions reductions:
  - Short tons of sustainable palm oil sourced (RSPO NEXT or Rainforest Alliance)

Only palm oil sustainably sourced from Malaysia, Indonesia, or Papua New Guinea can be submitted to Option 2 at this time.

Once data has been submitted, the greenhouse gas equivalency is calculated using the approach outlined in Walmart’s Project Gigaton Accounting Policy.

2 In addition to the actions already reported in this ACOP how has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets in other ways? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

In January 2017, Walmart joined World Resources Institute (WRI) and 20 other companies in the launch of a global decision-support tool to monitor deforestation. The tool—called Global Forest Watch Pro—is an online platform that provides companies, banks, and other stakeholders with data and tools for monitoring global forest loss due to the production of key commodities like palm oil, soy, and Brazilian beef. The system can plot the location of thousands of farms, production facilities, and municipalities, and provides alerts to track environmental risks such as tree-cover loss and fires. We also support regional efforts and the use of certifications to reduce forest loss and deliver sustainable commodities, across palm oil, soy, beef, and pulp and paper products. Walmart also invites suppliers to join us in working to reduce deforestation through innovative sourcing strategies and the use of technology to increase transparency and supply chain accountability. We also support regional efforts and certifications to reduce forest loss and deliver sustainable commodities. Walmart has a 2020 commitment to source critical commodities produced with zero net deforestation, including all Brazilian soy, palm oil, and private-brand pulp and paper. We invite our suppliers to join us on this journey. To join the Deforestation pillar of our Project Gigaton, companies should commit to sustainably source palm oil, soy, beef, or pulp and paper. As part of the program, we encourage our suppliers to commit to sourcing Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil NEXT (RSPO NEXT) or equivalent standards in 100 percent of your company’s palm oil supply by 2020.
