India

3.6 How do you proactively promote RSPO and RSPO certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products to your customers?

There is neither adequate awareness nor demand for RSPO certified Palm Oil and products in India, where all our refined oils and oleochemicals predominantly sell. Even if there is any, the buyers/consumers are not prepared to pay the premium for the same.

However, 3F being fully committed to the cause of RSPO, are endeavouring to create this awareness and promote the same to its customers/consumers.

Not applicable at present.

7.3. Your answers above indicate that you are not yet using 100% RSPO certified palm oil and oil palm products. Do you have plans to immediately cover the gap using Book & Claim?

No

Please explain why:

As mentioned above, we have a long way to go for buying RSPO certified palm products due to non awareness of this in the Indian market. We need to make a beginning first to start supplying certified palm products and gradually move up to 100% compliance. This could take a few years and therefore, immediately covering the gap using the Book & Claim does not apply.

No

Please state if you have any future plans to do so?
