3.4 Year expected to only source RSPO-certified palm oil and oil palm products.

2030

3.4.1 If target has not been met, please explain why.

There are still negative perceptions of palm oil products in EU. High cost of RSPO-certified raw materials is a constraint to achieving higher volumes of certified products. Low uptake of RSPO products in the American market

3.5 If the TimeBound Plan commitments declared above do not cover all countries in which the member operates, please explain why

Our TimeBound Plan encompasses Carotino's brand products delivered to EU and UK only where the target is achievable. This is the region where the demand for RSPO-certified products is most dominant. Most customers in other regions of the world do not see any benefit in procuring RSPO-certified palm products and derivatives as the additional premium is a deterrent, at the same time it is not a requirement of the end-user.

Shared Responsibility

The Board of Governors of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil approved new Shared Responsibility rules on 31 October 2019, requiring all members to share sustainability requirements and obligations. Reporting of Shared Responsibility (SR) requirements will be done through ACOP and MyRSPO. As the process of verification of the reports is in development, the Shared Responsibility section in ACOP may change in future ACOP cycles. Evidence to show compliance to the SR requirements shall be uploaded via your membership profile in MyRSPO. Please login to your MyRSPO account and upload the relevant policies, plans and relevant reports there. If you do not have a policy or your policy does not cover all items, you will be required to provide a Declaration of Support for the relevant policy items in your MyRSPO profile. Additional information on the required policies and plans applicable to all sectors as well as the annual uptake targets for supply chain actors can be found on <https://rspo.org/members/shared-responsibility> or email the Shared Responsibility team at sharedresponsibility@rspo.org.
