As part of Lakeland Dairies wider business sustainability programme we will continue to provide updates and relevant information to our commercial team on the aims of the RSPO, the cultivation of CS palm oil and its use within our business and our products. In 2019 we extended the scope of our accreditation to include segregated and mass balance palm oils. We will aim to maintain our current certification level in the coming year. Lakeland Dairies have introduced segregated CSPO into a range of our powder products and as a consequence of this development, one of our customers has decided to change their product recipe to contain only segregated CSPO. In the coming year our technical and procurement teams will continue to engage with our customers and suppliers to identify further opportunities for the use of CSPO in our products. We will continue to promote the aims of RSPO within our sustainability engagement with the wider society and our stakeholders.

Shared Responsibility

The Board of Governors of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil approved new Shared Responsibility rules on 31 October 2019, requiring all members to share sustainability requirements and obligations. Reporting of Shared Responsibility (SR) requirements will be done through ACOP and MyRSPO. As the process of verification of the reports is in development, the Shared Responsibility section in ACOP may change in future ACOP cycles. Evidence to show compliance to the SR requirements shall be uploaded via your membership profile in MyRSPO. Please login to your MyRSPO account and upload the relevant policies, plans and relevant reports there. If you do not have a policy or your policy does not cover all items, you will be required to provide a Declaration of Support for the relevant policy items in your MyRSPO profile. Additional information on the required policies and plans applicable to all sectors as well as the annual uptake targets for supply chain actors can be found on <https://rspo.org/members/shared-responsibility> or email the Shared Responsibility team at sharedresponsibility@rspo.org.
