Some Lidl countries are involved in national activities concerning palm oil. For example the Lidl Stiftung is a member of the German/Austrian/Swiss initiative FONAP (forum for sustainable palm oil). Via this initiative we support smallholder projects in Africa and participate in the further development of certification systems. Through the forum, we are also involved in the standard revision progress of the RSPO Standard. Throughout our detailed Palmoil-Mapping we collect valuable data to understand our supply chains better and to identify further needs for action. We have yearly meetings with our most important palm oil suppliers to address important topics like traceability. We are ambitious in pursuing our goal of procuring exclusively certified palm oil in all markets. Our target requestes only Segregated Plam(kerne)oil volumes and Segregated and Mass Balance Volumes for Derivatives/Fractions in all Food, Nearfood and Non-Food products."
